Hi Paul,

If possible I would like an extension for my reclamation bond for Red Warrior Mine here in Washington County. I have switched banks for my reclamation bond and they have to start over with everything. They said it should be about the first of February when they have it completed. It is in process, they are waiting on information from their bank's main branch.

Thank you.

Thank you for following through with this. I will print this e mail and extend the deadline to February 8.
